MEXICO MEN ESCAPE INJURY IN EAST BETHEL PLANE CRASH

Two occupants of a single-engine private plane escaped injury when their aircraft crashed near the Robert Hastings' farm at East Bethel at 8:20 p. m. last Thursday evening, July 11. The craft had taken off from the Mexico airstrip. The airplane was demolished in the accident.

The pilot of the 1947 Cessna 140 was identified as Louis Le-Blanc, 49, accompanied by his 18year-old son, Louis A.

The elder Leblanc told authorities he was coming in for a landing on the intervale when he discovered he was approaching nearby trees too fast. In an attempt to get the craft over the trees, he tried to rev up the engine to clear them, but skimmed the tops of several trees before

BETHEL TAX RATE SET AT $37 PER $1,000 -VALUATION UP $261,142

It was announced this week be $37.00 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. This is a four dollar increase over a year ago, but a dollar less than was predicted at town meeting time.

Property valuation in Bethel this year totals $8,616,745, an increase of $261,142 over the 1967 total of $8,355,603.

The town, as a result of the formation of a water district, iost $102,695 in Bethel Water Co. valuation, but new construction, extension of buildings, etc., resulted in the announced increase.

So, to the person who was When boys start crying be- heard condemning the umpire's in turn questions your abilities

Some say, we should have only Well, for Pete's Sake! With the One rule states that Protest number of boys wanting to play shall be considered only when ball, having two teams is enabling more of them to play, and the same town can't be on separate teams and get along? What is becoming of decent, Christian living? It's dog-eat-dog and the majority of boys have no respect

If the boys are led to be so hitter over their games, then the parents had better get with it, and do some extra coaching in cheerfulness, respectfulness, less lip, and just plain common sense.

Any team could take a lesson from the Andover boys that swallowed his pride?! and bitter- played the Red Sox here-did you ever see more cheerful losers? They lost, but they had a good time and left the field laughing. That's sportsmanship, and I admire them for it.

So, this is what has been going on. Don't you agree that it is truly a 'sad situation'? Let's hope that another year brings more harmonious leadership and play. We need some better dispositions and more Christian attitudes,

The Newry Extension Group took an all day trip, seeing interesting and educational places

They left Newry Corner in twocars about 7:30 a. m., July 10. Traveled to South Solon to inspect the Meeting House there. that has had its interior walls frescoed by students of the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture, The murals represent Catholic, Jewish and Protestant religions and are derived from both the Old and New Testaments.

They then traveled on to where they enjoyed a delicious picnic lunch at a road side covered ta. ble while the surrounding country was drenched by a heavy

Here they decided to go to ing its picture. The one at the Bingham to see the Wyman Dam about a yearling it is thought still raining while they were there, they could not see as much as was desired.

On they went to Farmington, where they visited the birth. place of Lillian Nordica, the great American Song Bird who was famous from 1879' to 1914

Next they visited several of the Sgt, and Mrs. Frederick Abbott buildings at Farmington State

After a short shopping trip in that did not drive them away. they made their way homeward. Mrs. Carlotta Hart is staying only to stop in East Dixfield alone at her home as her brother at the roadside picnic grounds

All arrived back at the start-Charles Travers is not very ing point about 6:30 p. m., a happy but tired group feeling that it flower for my birthday. She and that it is hotter there than writes that they had had a rain it had been for many years.
